ALABAMA REPORTER,
THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 24.

MR. THOMAS S. SMITH, of Tenn., is authorized agent during his absence from the county.
Feb. 18th 1864. L. S. WHITE

We regret to learn that two have perished here, the death of two per sons here in Virginia, Charles Warden and P. D. Simmons. The former is the son of Washington Warden, of this city. Warden was the son of Hon. Geo. W.
Warden, who died about 18 years ago. P. D.
Simmons was the son of the late P. D.
Simmons, and was about 16 years of age.
They were excellent young men, good soldiers and brave boys. They were promising young men, and had been good and useful citizens. They were public with the parents and relatives in the care of these gallant boys.

Dr. R. H. Ashby, of the 5th Ala.
Cavalry, arrived at home on Saturday evening last. He was captured last summer at Shiloh, Tenn., and carried to the rear of the army. He remained there until a few months since, when he was transferred to Point Lookout, and remained there until he was very much impaired. He came near losing his mind, and was glad to learn from him that his eyesight was improved.

James W. Kirtle arrived at home last day. He was captured at Shiloh, Tenn., and was transferred to Point Lookout, and remained there until he was very much impaired.

John McCall, of the 5th Ala. Cavalry, arrived at home last day. He was captured at Shiloh, Tenn., and was transferred to Point Lookout, and remained there until he was very much impaired.

John McCall, of the 5th Ala. Cavalry, arrived at home last day. He was
much impaired.

THE FRONT-TIER NEWS.

From the Memphis (Albany) Appeal.

Contrary to the expectation so generally entertained by every one, at the front as well as in the city, two days ago no movement of a general character has taken place, excepting the movement of the 1st Ala. Cavalry, led by Gen. Johnston, to the front of Thursday morning. At that time both armies were in position to begin a series of attacks, but the day was lost in a vain effort to reach the position of the 1st Ala. Cavalry, and the day was lost. The 1st Ala. Cavalry was in position to begin a series of attacks, but the day was lost in a
